Sanctuary Lamp

In memory of Mike Gilligan by John & Helen Fitzgerald.

Thank you

Many thanks to all who helped make the Sacred Three Days especially memorable. They are known by God: the choirs, readers, altar servers, ushers, RCIA preparatory team, and devoted attendants who set the sanctuary. Particular thanks to the dusters – the 'pew committee' of the altar rosary group whose help from Kyle McGovern & Leah Creaven of the fourth grade was especially helpful.

VOCATIONS

The year of the Priesthood June 19, 2009 to June 19, 2010.

Walter Winchell, a newspaper legend of the forties & fifties past, spoke of New York City as the "city that never sleeps" with its thousands of people, each of whom had a thousand stories. One classmate in the Ordination class of 1955, Francis Boyle, is a man of delightful and engaging stories. In Cardinal Hayes High School Frank was well established as a song & dance man. Over time he demonstrated a depth of appreciation not only for the sounds of music but for stories from which the music was conceived. The enchanting movie pictures of the forties and fifties from his perspective were the heart of entertainment.

Thus it was not surprising to find Frank, after his overwhelming job interview, working on Fifth Avenue and Fiftieth St across from St Patrick's Cathedral. The store, "Liberty Music Shop." Many a celebrity went there to purchase with the assistance of a knowledgeable employee. The day came. Frank had a distinguished customer, an actress, one who was Frank's favorite. What a joy that day to meet Ann Sheridan. She was able to make final decisions after forty five minutes. If Frank enjoyed the time, Ann Sheridan was bewildered in the daunting surprise that came with Frank. At one point when he mentioned the names she had in her roles in six movies – Ann's comment "I feel as though I have been totally x-rayed."

Another great who came to the Liberty Shop was Pat O'Brien. Not simply a pleasant man but a genuine spirited human being. He was delighted to talk with Frank, who was then in the minor seminary. Frank of course assured Pat O'Brien that he was a real influence on seminarians who had the Hollywood glimpse of the priesthood especially through Pat O'Brien's roles in 'Angels With Dirty Faces', 'Fighting Sixty-Ninth', and 'Fighting Father Dunne.'

Frank even hidden away in the seminary continued to meet notables. In 1953 Cardinal Pizzaro arrived at Dunwoodie with Cardinal Spellman and Archbishop J. Francis McIntyre of Los Angeles. Cardinal Pizzaro's secretary was not needed at that meeting and the rector told Francis Boyle, the house librarian, to give the secretary the usual tour.

Off they went, Frank and the secretary, Monsignor Giovanni Montini. They were together for an hour. The time ended and Frank the host bid farewell to the Monsignor, a short and gracious man who would be back in Rome the next day. Ann Sheridan, Pat O'Brien, Monsignor Montini. As time went on Frank must have had a particular charisma for meeting the famous – but that is another story.

Enjoy whatever is the happiness of a happen-stance meeting. It happens, is worthwhile, a particular joy, and then – gone. Frank can say though, Montini...yes, he moved up, became Pope Paul VI.

Monsignor John Gallagher

Then and Now

St. Maria Goretti, Pray for us.

Easter glory, Risen Lord
Savior alive, love's reward.

St Maria Goretti, now life forever,
Her blest gift, her faith's endeavor.
Our faith, Easter, His spirit restored.

Monsignor John A. Gallagher

Respect Life

Adult stem cells are showing promise in growing bones to replace those damaged from birth defects, arthritis, or injury. Cheekbones and a jaw bone have been grown from stem cells in the patient's own bone marrow and subsequently implanted. "The availability of personalized bone grafts engineered from the patient's own stem cells would revolutionize the way we currently treat these defects," commented a researcher at Columbia University which, along with Cincinnati Children's Hospital, has achieved success in this area. NRL News, 10/09
