ADVENT REFLECTION

Many years ago there was heard a voice crying out in the wilderness, "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths" That, of course, was the voice of John the Baptist, son of Elizabeth and Zachariah, relative of Mary and thus of Jesus. He is presented in the scriptures as a surprise, sprouting forth in the desert, signaling in himself and others an awareness that something great was about to happen, something earth-shaking and transformative. From the outset he preached preparedness, shaking off the darkness and slavery of the past and readying oneself for something entirely fulfilling. He urged all, as did Isaiah, to be attentive and alert and, even more so, to be honest and authentic. No one should take comfort in one's position in society or to think of oneself as being better than another..

He called for a cleansing or baptism, a re-creation so to speak, an openness of oneself to whatever God provides. John's role was to be that of a precursor; someone who urged anticipation, that state of being in wait for something more or greater to happen; to allow oneself no immediate gratification, but patient acceptance of what God has in store for us. As in all things, human self-discipline is an absolute. In birth and in death our anticipation has to be a disciplined one. It is to this that Advent is calling us we await the great treasure that Jesus promises - life with God forever.

Fr. Healy

"Caring for the sick, frail, elderly and dying patient is a noble endeavor. Our future generations will use as a measure of civilization how well our society cared for the elderly and dying, how we protected our elders' rights and dignity, and, finally, how well we strove every day to enhance their care." Dr. Alex Kodiath in Elder Care: Precious Presence
