Holy Father in your Love revealed in Jesus Your Son, we gather with Him to listen to His Word and to offer thanks with Him for His Gift to You in the unbloody sacrifice of the Mass.

Open our minds and hearts through the Holy Spirit that we too, might be able to realize Our Lady's understanding who could say "Be it done according to Your Will".

GREETINGS

Thank you so much for your kind welcome to the parish.

I hope over these next few years to get to know you and assist you in whatever ways that are possible. God knows that we all need each other and the wonderful grace and blessings that come to us through our faith in Jesus. Monsignor Gallagher certainly deserves a rest after his many years of service and I pray God that his retirement will be a peaceful and fruitful period of his life.

As you can imagine, these first days at St Paul's are busy at the Rectory – cleaning, fixing and just trying to get a sense of what needs to be done. We unearthed some problems – electrical, plumbing, and structural. The porch in the front of the rectory, which is over what once was a garage, is in bad shape. The lintels supporting the structure are rotting. I will keep you informed as to the proposed solutions.

One item that I really need your input concerns the church – and that is the placement of the tabernacle. I believe the tabernacle should be placed in the front center of the sanctuary beneath the crucifix. The Eucharist is the living presence of Jesus in our midst and is the source and sustenance of our faith as Christians – that which holds us together as God's people. Please let me know what you think and I shall seriously consider your recommendations. Have a wonderful week!

Fr. James Healy

Respect Life

"I'm against abortion, but I don't want to impose my morality on someone else." What? How can you be against the killing of the unborn in one breath and then justify this by not wanting to tell others what to do? "The problem is we are allowing abortion to fall into a different category than every other act of homicide. But abortion is not a different act; it is a different method of the act of homicide in which one person kills another." Bryan Kemper of Stand True Ministries, The Southern Cross, February, 2010
