Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for December:

General Intention - Victimized Children

That children who are victims of abandonment or violence may find the love and protection they need.

Missionary Intention - Prepare the Savior's Coming
That Christians, enlightened by the Word incarnate, may prepare humanity for the Savior's coming.

Our Journey in Faith -

I had a friend much older than myself and I delighted in bringing communion to her bedside. She lived well past her 100 years and was filled with stories from the past. Yet toward the end of her life she spoke most often of her future. How happy she would be to see her parents and family members when God would call her to Himself, how all the joys of Christmas past were nothing to what she would have in a heavenly Christmas - seeing Jesus as He really is. On my last visit she told me that her family was waiting for her in the next room - just steps away. Lo and behold, she said goodbye, closed her eyes, and died.

During this Advent - Christmas season I'm sure we all look back and, yes, look forward to the days ahead. Family and friends crowd our minds, things to do and homes to prepare. Yet the reason for all this, is not just the past or even the present. It is all about the one to come. Although Jesus visited us briefly some two thousand years ago, He promised to come again! Where and how, we are not sure of. But why, we can say, is to take us with Him to a bright, new future with joy and happiness that knows no end.

So let us prepare ourselves for the coming of the Lord. Confession and daily mass would be wonderful ways, to open our hearts and to cleanse our souls, to await His coming. Eyes have not seen and ears have not heard of the joy that comes with The Christ.

Father James F. Healy
