Our Year in Faith - In the beginning of his homily during the Mass of Ordination to Priesthood for our Archdiocese, the Friars of the Renewal and the Identity Fathers, Cardinal Dolan recalled the words of Blessed Jon XXIII: "Holy Mother Church rejoices." It certainly did that day when our brothers in Christ received the Second Order of Holy Orders. In the greatest of counter-cultural acts they gave themselves completely to the service of the Church and Her Lord. This weekend, again at Saint Patrick's, the People of God rejoices in the ordination of eight men to the permanent diaconate. Ad Multos Annos to our new priests and their deacon collaborators. May God bless them and us!

Our Journey in Faith -

The story of Jesus and the widow who lost her son is illustrative of so many situations in life wherein we turn to Jesus in tears and leave rejoicing. Faith even in the worst of times has a way of buoying us up to face the ever changing landscape of our lives. Just the thought of Jesus gives us hope and where there is hope there is life and light.

I'm sure when Jesus approached the bereaved widow, through her sobs and laments she saw the possibility of his doing something. And when the reality of what He did set in she could hardly believe that such a miracle could take place. So shocking, how utterly miraculous was this new gift of life. Her son was resuscitated, he came back to life. What a stupendous miracle. How many of us dream of such a thing happening to a loved one. But this does not compare to resurrected life that Jesus promises "to those who live and believe in Him." That beyond the grave a new order of existence holds sway - life with God forever more. No tears but eternal joy. Alleluia.

Fr. James Healy
