Our Year in Faith - In the midst of our Lenten observance we celebrate this week the feast days of two saints: Patrick and Joseph. Both serve us as wonderful examples of prayer and virtue every year but especially as we continue to commemorate the Year of Faith. For us in the Archdiocese, St. Patrick is our patron and appropriately so. For he represents the fervor of our Catholic ancestors as they came and settled in this country and gave so much of themselves to this particular church and community. Patrick teaches us as a true witness of forgiveness of enemies and as an apostle who takes what people understand and helps them to go beyond it to the way, the truth, and the life who is Christ.

Saint Joseph is seen as the patron of the universal church. Faithfully he maintained his relationship with God, obeying divine commands, and always realizing the proper priorities in his actions. As he protected his family so now we call upon him to be our protector as the Church fulfills her mission.

Though we remain true to our penitential practices this week a little corned beef with Saint Joseph's bread will not hurt us in pledging our hope that we will do the same as these two giants of faith.

You can find additional information regarding the Year of Faith at myyearoffaith.org

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

Tom Keane, Marie Speranza, Joan Whalen, Remedy Pagan, Marie Santomasso, Dawn Wood, Dorothy Schreiber, Margaret Silby, Kay Collins, Agnes McKenna, Dorothy Nixon, Kitty Rogener, Fran Cinlla, Luigi Chiapetta, Helen Marone, Eileen Fratelli, Michael Castellani, Thomas Finan, Eugene McGahren Jr. and Edward Mastrangelo and Frances Joyce.

Our Journey in Faith -

As we reflect on this Year of Faith, the Cardinal's Annual Appeal provides a wonderful way to focus on stewardship, a virtue that is so essential to our faith.

We hear so much these days about being good stewards of our environment, our finances—but what of our faith? Biblical stewardship asks us to recognize all that God gives to us, and to give, in return, generously and sacrificially our time, talent and treasure, back to Him and His Church.

Your Gift to the Appeal:

- Helps educate our children in our Catholic schools and religious education programs;
- Provides for retired priests and religious by giving them the retirement care they deserve after decades of service;
- Helps to educate our future clergy studying at Saint Joseph's Seminary - preparing them for a life of service; and
- Helps fund Catholic Charities, which provides loving care to millions of people in our Archdiocese.
- Finally, it is through the Appeal that we receive a myriad of services and guidance from the Archdiocese.

If you have not already done so, please donate to The Cardinal's Appeal today. Thus far the average gift has been $238. With your help, I am sure we can reach our goal of $46,500!

Fr. James Healy
