The Year in Faith - With the Solemnity of the Christ the King the formal recognition of this time in the Church's history as the Year of Faith is concluded. It would be an error, however, to say this is an ending for it is the end only of the beginning of the call for renewal by Pope Benedict and Francis. During his short time as our Universal Shepherd the Holy Father has called upon each and every believer to examine themselves and discern ways in which they might be faithful disciples. In our Archdiocese there are many opportunities to live out our vocation to pursue holiness. As each parish community embraces the reflection necessary To Making All Things New it is an invitation to become more active in faith sharing by being a lector, an extraordinary minister of the Eucharist, a catechist, or a part of an adult faith formation team and/or the RCIA. As one person once said in the catholic Church we have no volunteers; only disciples living out the call to holiness.

Lastly, and perhaps most importantly, in his desire to build upon the spiritual advances of the Year of Faith Pope Francis has called for an Extraordinary Synod on the Pastoral Challenges to the Family in the Context of Evangelization. This event calls upon each to realize the importance of family in the passing on of the faith as well as recognizing that each member's personal growth throughout life in the faith experience. This papal effort follows upon the sentiments he expressed in the encyclical Lumen Fidei. For all of us this must be a year to see how we collaborate in our homes & in our parishes in this sacred task. As this is the final work of the Year of Faith we thank the pastors who made this column a part of their celebration. In the weeks following we will be launching a new web site called FaithfulDisciples.org. Pray for its success.

Our Journey in Faith -

Businesses large and small take a great deal of time preparing end-of-year reports. These analyze where progress has been made in certain areas and where further growth is necessary. They also examine where certain practices are outmoded and other are counterproductive in achieving corporate and personal goals. As a faithful community and as individual believers we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ Our King which marks the final week of the liturgical year. It is appropriate, therefore, for us to take stock of our spiritual lives, especially in the context of the Year of Faith. Using as the most important criteria the Holy Father's call for all of us to enter into and nourish an "intimate, personal, public, and communal relationship" with Christ we can begin our reflection with a question as to how many times do we turn to God in prayer. Do we begin and end our day in praise of the Presence of the Divine in our lives? Do we say the Rosary often? Do we spend time in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament? Do we participate in Lectio Divina reading and mediating upon the Scripture? Is the sacrifice of the Mass a priority every Lord's Day? Do we encourage our family and friends to join us in raising up our hearts and minds to God? The faith we love must reveal itself in acts which give flesh to our hopes and prayers. Do we leave our comfort zone and serve the Lord in practical ways? Do we welcome the opportunity to serve the unwed mother, the homebound senior, or the seriously ill? Of course, these sacramental events must be furthered by our participation in the sacramental life of the Church. As Cardinal Dolan shared in the Synod of Bishops, "We kneel in the Sacrament of Penance because we are profoundly sorry for our faults and our sins, serious obstacles to the New Evangelization. But we must stand forgiven, resolute to return to the work entrusted to us - as evangelizers of the Gospel of Mercy." As Advent nears, let us acknowledge that it is a great start to move away from our past weaknesses to a greater unity with God and man.

PARISH NEWS

Making All Things New - If you have not yet returned your survey please do so as soon as possible. Copies can be found in the rear of church. The survey can be returned today or at the rectory any time. It can also be accessed on our parish website. This survey is our way to avail ourselves of an opportunity to help the Cardinal make his decision about our parish. Let's us all take full advantage of this opportunity.

Scout Christmas Wreath Distribution will be taking place on Saturday & Sunday, Nov. 30th & Dec. 1st. The scouts & leaders of Troop 47 would like to thank all for their support & wish everyone a Happy & Healthy Christmas season.

*Wedding Bans - 2
