To Make All Things New:

To say that times have changed is so obvious that it is meaningless to most. For change seems to be built into our nature. With the passing of years nothing stays the same. So as to catch up and to give direction to our future, the Archdiocese has set in to motion an initiative entitled "making all things new." Some of the goals of this initiative are: to ensure that all parishioners have opportunities for quality lifelong Christian education and formation, to strengthen service to those who are most in need, to promote vocations to priesthood and religious life, to build a greater sense of unity among Catholics from all cultures within the local Church in order to enhance the vibrancy of parish life in the Archdiocese of New York. What it entails is a realistic assessment of what the church needs for today and tomorrow. For some parishes have outgrown their facilities and new parishes (churches, schools, parish centers) have to be built. For other parishes, the population has so decreased that the parish cannot support the church, school or ministries. How do we come to such determinations? We the parish should come together and discuss these things. Parishioners will decide on what has to be done. They will make their recommendations to the Cardinal and he will have the final word.

Congratulations - On Sat., Sept. 14th, Sr. Eileen Treanor was honored at a Eucharistic Celebration at the Seminary by His Eminence Edward Cardinal Egan, as a Foundress of the Archdiocesan Catechetical Office on this their 30th Anniversary.

Thank You - Again, our "Breakfast Committee" helped us to fulfill the Cardinal's request for the families of our Rel. Ed. Program to "eat together" and "work together" on a project. Mr. Paul Young, founder of Camp Veritas was the guest speaker on "Family Prayer."

Many, many thanks to Mr. J. Murray for providing the food; Rocco Vitulli, Nick Ferrara, Bob Santini, Bill Jeremis, James Oates and Catechists, who helped set-up, serve and clean-up. Thanks for making the impossible possible.

Sr. Eileen

Stamps - St. Joseph's Indian School with Lakota (Sioux) children say "many thanks" for your gift of $35.00 Campbell's UPC Codes and/or Box Tops for Education totaling $242 worth of box tops and 333 point labels from Campbell Soup cans. The box for the labels is in the back of the church. "Keep them coming" your small contribution makes a difference.

Save the Date: Sat., March 22, 2014 for St. Paul the Apostle Parish's annual St. Patrick's Dance.
