Our Journey in Faith

As we celebrate this Palm Sunday, we begin a most solemn re-presentation of the final days of Jesus in His ministry. Jesus, who was born in a stable thirty-three years before, so directed His life that it would culminate in the completion of His work. Everything He said and did pointed to these final events. For He came to save us and just like the sacrifices of the Old Testament it would require a sacrifice of Himself.

However, to make sure we would never forget Him, He left us a sacramental real presence of Himself. Gathered around a table with His disciples, He took bread and wine and said, "This is my body and this is my blood. Take and eat; take and drink. For this is the new covenant... do this in memory of me." In that last supper Jesus anticipated the sacrifice of Himself on the cross. He empowered those who sat with Him to repeat His words and to make real to the end of time His presence among us.

In our celebration of Holy Thursday let us cherish this unique gift of Himself to us. Let us glorify and praise the blessed sacrament that spiritually nourishes us all the days of our life.

Let us not ever separate our union with the Lord, especially in trying moments of life and its decline. Jesus on Good Friday hung on a cross to encourage us to carry the crosses we bear and to point to the fact that with God all is possible. His agony and desolation only gives us strength and courage, especially knowing that He did this for us. Through His absolute giving of Himself, we learn to give and to sacrifice for others.

All these wonderful events of Jesus' final days among us direct our minds to ask why. As the ancients would say: "love has its reasons which reason doesn't know." We humbly believe that Jesus wants us with Him forever. His resurrection from the dead is ours. He lived, died, and rose for us. To be with Him forever is His gift!
