Our Journey in Faith

To hear Jesus in the Gospel reassure His disciples with the words, "Do not be afraid" is always comforting. We all live in a world full of problems and so often we react with great trepidation and fear, anxiety and restlessness. These responses are paralyzing, and, rather than help us to face and deal with the situation they inhibit a forthright reaction. I guess our own insecurities take over and we recognize how dependent we are on each other and ultimately God. Faced with severe illness or with a multiple series of problems our very being cries out for help. Jesus recognizes human weakness and it was because of this that He urges us "to follow Him." To be strong in spirit and to be resolute in determining the best path to follow is all part of Christian discipleship. It is what we mean when we say we must conform ourselves to Christ, to take on His strength and vision. No matter what our individual problems may be, Christ can come to the rescue by filling our hearts with hope and our minds with His abiding presence. He promises that He will always be with us and He is true to His word.

Father James F. Healy
