Our Journey in Faith

So often in life we have periods of doubt or we feel confused, yes even with regard to our faith. There are many reasons for this considering the world we are in and the complexity of our lives. We would all like to be more secure, more certain especially in relation to God and our faith in Jesus.

This Sunday in the Gospel, Jesus directly asks His disciples what they are thinking about with regard to Himself. What are people saying about Him? A string of answers comes reeling out: He's John the Baptist, He is Elijah, He is one of the prophets. Certainly Jesus sparked much interest in others so it was natural to identify Him with similar religious figures. But what Jesus was really seeking was what they themselves believed. Peter who seemingly was never at a loss for words, blurted out a rather remarkable profession of faith: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus at once knew that Peter's declaration was not manufactured by himself nor did it come from the masses. For no mere man could reasonably deduce this. No, it came from God, revealing to Peter this article of faith. Peter was being graced by God with this insight. Only later would he understand its implications and ultimately its cost.

And so, when we are given moments to think about God and our relationship to Him, do not be surprised that we too are gifted with faith and yet need to clarify that faith in very concrete ways enabling us to live the Christian message. Christ, the Anointed One, the Messiah, yes! But He had a very heavy cross to carry. We are God's beloved children, yet we too must carry our crosses - but only with God's help.
