Our Journey in Faith -

The feast of the Holy Family gives us a great opportunity to reflect a bit about our own families and the important role of family in our society. Not that there is another family like that of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. They are unique for Jesus was not just the human son of Mary, but the divine Son of God and who among us can compare with Him. However, the tender bond of love and respect that knit them together can certainly be something toward which we all can seek to initiate and incorporate in our lives with each other. One example of this is to make sure we, including our children, come to know and love our God. The role of religion in the lives of The Holy Family was very evident. They were pious and God fearing people. Mary and Joseph practiced their Jewish faith with great devotion and their son, Jesus, grew in wisdom, age and grace under their tutelage. They, moreover, evidenced in their own lives concern for their neighbors and relatives as witnessed in their intervention at Cana and the visitation of Elizabeth. They obviously went to synagogue and to the Temple for major feasts. Jesus was well versed in the Torah and was a man of deep prayer. When He set out on his ministry He was known as one who taught with authenticity, in other words, He lived and practiced what He preached.

And so there is much to learn from the Holy Family. Given our limitations, with God's help, we can surmount them. None of us is perfect, but with the example of The Holy Family ever before us, we know what to aim for - to keep the commandments, to be pious in our religious duties, to be gracious and kind to our neighbors and to strive earnestly to be authentic witnesses to Christ.

May this new year of 2015 be a blessed one for all our families.
