Today's second collection is for The Catholic University of America, the national university of the Catholic Church in the United States, located in Washington, D.C. It provides an academically rigorous education guided by Catholic intellectual tradition to nearly 7,000 students every year. Please be generous.

Holy Father's Intentions for January:

Universal - Economic Development

That all may promote authentic economic development that respects the dignity of all peoples.

For Evangelization - Christian Unity

That Christians of diverse denominations may walk toward the unity desired by Christ.

Our Journey in Faith -

The kingdom of God as established by Christ is to be all inclusive, composed of all nations, peoples of all cultures, tongues, colors, and differences. In Jesus' final words, He sent his disciples to preach, teach and baptize all that they encountered and all who were open in faith to His gospel. Our faith is Catholic, that is universal. It is not tied to one nation or tongue, but embraces all with the gift of divine brotherhood in Jesus Himself.

As we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, we are reminded of this divine manifestation to the world. Foreigners to Judaism came seeking the new born king. They brought gifts of gold, frankincense and myrr symbolic of one who would be king, prophet and savior. They, like the world at large, were looking for the one who is to come "to fill the expectations of all people." For centuries upon centuries people of all types seek the Lord - the one who will bring peace and reconciliation to our world. It was to a baby in Bethlehem of Judea that they found themselves giving humble submission. The sky was filled with angels, singing glad tidings of peace to all of good will.

Should God neglect any of us of this message? No! So it is up to us to live peaceable lives, to echo the angelic hymn and to work as hard as we can to bring God's peace and love to our world. For we share in the mission of the apostles as disciples of the Lord.

Father James F. Healy

Christmas Offering:

We thank you for your generosity in our Christmas collection. As you know this is one of the major collections in helping us to meet our expenses. If you were away for the holidays, please remember to contribute when you can!
