STEWARDSHIP: WEEK OF JUNE 29th:

Figures not available at the time of printing.

The second collection this week is for the Black & Indian Missions. By virtue of our baptism into Christ Jesus, we are all missionaries, beginning with our own families and parishes. Like the apostles, we are encouraged to reach out to our brothers and sisters in faith, love, and sacrifice. We must do our best to continue to build the Lord's kingdom in our world. We invite you to help build our mission to the missions by supporting the 2014 Black & Indian Mission Collection. Envelopes can be found in each pew. Thank you.

2014 Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal.

Thank you to all the families who have contributed to the 2014 Appeal. Your generosity has allowed us to reach our goal!

Our Journey in Faith

What does it mean to obey the will of God?

Is it something onerous or overbearing, a weight too heavy to carry? Or is it something that Jesus says: "My yoke is easy and my burden is light." What is it that God wants us to carry about. Quite simply it is Jesus himself. As St. Theresa of Avila states: "Christ has no (physical - worldly) body but ours, no hands, no feet on earth but ours. We are the eyes with which He looks compassionately at this world. Ours are the feet with which He walks to do good. Ours are the hands with which He blesses all the world." It is for this reason that St Paul refers not to the good he was able to accomplish, but rather what Christ did through him. We are all called to be Christ bearers, so that through our good work all might praise God.

When you consider all the burden, personal, economic, relational, that people carry around and compare them with the love, forgiveness, compassion and mercy of God in Christ, you can experience the relief and peace of our faith. We are truly free in Christ, for He has come not to condemn but to save. So be lighthearted and joyful and filled with praise. Christ is our Savior and He is always with us.

Fr. James F. Healy
