Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for November:

Universal Intention - Lonely People. That all who suffer loneliness may experience the closeness of God and the support of others.

Our Journey in Faith

As we journey in faith together, we collectively understand that our lives are all-encompassing. They include you and me and everyone else. God's plan is to save all of us and in one way or another we are connected to God's love and providence. From the Book of Genesis to the final book of the Bible, the Book of Revelation, we read the story of God's intimate connection with humanity. The two chief events are the creation of Adam and Eve and the Incarnation of God's own son, Jesus, the new Adam. They serve as the two pillars that bind us all together. What was meant to be a glorious account of our sharing life in God was marred by the introduction of sin, a product of our freedom and an ever-present weakness of our human nature. But even in the face of this human condition we read of God's ever-present love and forgiveness.

As we believe, God has given us the means to become reconciled to Him, to be restored in His sight as a true son/daughter. Principally through the sacraments of Baptism and Penance we have been given the ways wherein we can attain true peace with God and ourselves and others. It is for this reason that Jesus, Our Savior, has come and for which He died on the cross. He atoned for our sins, He redeemed humanity, and He shows us the way wherein we can be with God and with each other. The Kingdom He preached is the state of righteousness (being true to God and others) that entails our journey to God in penance and our receiving from Him the forgiveness and grace we need to live lives of joy and peace in a world plagued with hatred and bitterness.

In today's world to say, "I'm sorry" seems to be in short supply. The consciousness of sin and wrongdoing is overshadowed by a spirit of independence and self-centeredness that has engulfed us in pride, or in an awkward sense of not owing others, not even ourselves, let alone God, an explanation for anything we do or say or think. We hurt ourselves and others and have no remorse. Sorrow for sin is a vital stance we need in turning to God. With sorrow there is an intentionality that helps us free ourselves with a desire to do better and to seek Him who not only forgives, but also shows us the way to redemption.

Fr. James F. Healy
