Our Journey in Faith

To be forgiven by God and God's people, the Church, is to embark on a new beginning. It is to cast off slavery to sin that has hampered us in so many ways in our relationship with God and to the world in which we live. We all know how bitterness, self-centeredness, and hatred can destroy our desire to be happy, joyful and at peace. With forgiveness, life takes on an experience of true openness to all that before was clouded by obsessions and fears. That is why resurrected life can be tasted even now by a person of faith because Jesus died and rose so that we might be free. Grace (the very life of God) is showered upon one who turns to his merciful love and forgiveness. Little by little or all at once it envelops us and our perception of the world around us. Unfretted we enjoy the joy and freedom that only God can give us. It illuminates our thoughts and feelings and every corner of our lives. These are aspects of joy or even a state of joy that makes even the commonplace important and significant in our lives. Conversations, laughter, strolling, observing, thinking, and living at one with others are all occasions that we can enter into as parts of God's providential love and concern for the world and the people He created. This experience of joy is but a prelude to the joy and praise that we render to our God who sent His Son that we might be free. The Lord is our Father who waits on the doorstep, who spots us in the distance and His heart grows fond and He comes running to throw His arms around our neck and welcomes us home. When we come to Him our joy begins!
