Our Journey in Faith

Thursday is Thanksgiving day. we celebrate it primarily with our families both near and far. It is one of the most traveled periods of the year, so expect to be a host or guest of friends and family on this holiday. We commemorate the feast of the Pilgrims and reenact a meal of great significance. It was eaten only after great sacrifices were made. Many pilgrims lost their lives because of the harsh winters and their inability to adapt. They had to learn how to sow and cultivate new crops, to relate to the Indians they met, and to endure the trials of a foreign environment. Like all immigrants there were fears that they would not succeed. Yet with determination and hard work they built up their colonies and became the nucleus of a great nation.

During this Thanksgiving let us never forget the sacrifices that were made by our earliest ancestors and the necessity to work together with the indigenous Indian population. Especially today when immigration to the United States is such a hot button issue. Are our immigrants seeking the same thing that the pilgrims sought? Security, freedom, justice, and friendship. Can we help to give a "thanksgiving" to them?

Just a note about myself. My family is trying to recreate a family thanksgiving out of state. Ann, the eldest, will be celebrating her 80th birthday and it is she whom we will be honoring. I will miss you all but I am sure you understand. It is a long time since we got together.

Fr. James F. Healy

Catholic Campaign for Human Development has come to the aid of communities nationwide for more than 40 years in an effort to eradicate poverty. This weekend's special collection is the primary source of funding for CCHD's anti-poverty grants and educational programs. Collection funds offer new hope each year to those living in poverty throughout the United States. And, 25% of the collection stays right here in our archdiocese to address poverty in our communities and defend the dignity of our neighbors. As we express our gratitude to the Lord during the Thanksgiving holiday for all His blessings bestowed upon us, let's think of those less fortunate than ourselves.

#489 St. Paul the Apostle Pg 2

Today we celebrate the canonization of Ludovico Da

Casoria. Did you realize that Ludovico is related to one of our parish families? He is an ancestor of the Mangieri / Americo family. Born in Casoria (near Naples), Arcangelo Palmentieri was a cabinet-maker before entering the Friars Minor in 1832, taking the name Ludovico. After his ordination five years later, he taught chemistry, physics and mathematics to younger members of his province for several years. In 1847, he had a mystical experience which he later described as a cleansing. After that he dedicated his life to the poor and infirm. He once said, "Christ's love has wounded my heart." This love prompted him to great acts of charity. To help continue these works of mercy, in 1859 he established the Gray Brothers, a religious community composed of men who formerly belonged to the Secular Franciscan Order. Three years later he founded the Gray Sisters of St. Elizabeth for the same purpose. Toward the beginning of his final nine year illness, Ludovico wrote a spiritual testament which described faith as "light in the darkness, help in sickness, blessing in tribulations, paradise in the crucifixion of life amid death." The local work for his beatification began within five months of Ludovico's death. He was beatified in 1993. Ludovico's spiritual testament begins: "The Lord called me unto Himself with a most tender love, and with an infinite charity He has guided me and led me in the course of my life."
