The Holy Father's Intentions for August:

Universal: Volunteers

That volunteers may give themselves generously to the service of the needy.

Evangelization: Outreach to the marginalized

That setting aside our very selves we may learn to be neighbors to those who find themselves on the margins of human life and society.

Visit of Pope Francis - As you may have heard, Pope Francis will be saying Mass at Madison Square Garden on September 25th. Each parish will be receiving a limited number of tickets, we will be advised in August as to how many tickets we will receive. If you are interested in attending, please fill out the postcard in the pew and drop it in the collection basket. There will be a lottery to determine who receives the tickets. Please call the rectory if you have any questions.

Today Jesus invites us to look at the real state of ourselves as to what we ought to be, as we are created in the image and likeness of God, with a higher goal than just concerned about temporal needs. People asked Jesus in curiosity, "what sign are you going to perform for us?" Already their enthusiasm over the miracle of the previous day has begun to wane, since Jesus has only multiplied earthly bread, whereas in times gone by, Moses the great Lawgiver, had given his people bread from heaven. The people's minds are still conditioned by material expectations.

The Jews failed to grasp the true meaning of Manna, which was the proof of infinite patience and unconditional love of God for his people in spite of their unfaithfulness. God went on patiently for many years preparing the coming of His Son into the world, and what happened in the Old Testament is only a sign for what was to come in the person of Jesus Christ, the true heavenly bread, which brings life to the world. Jesus offers Himself as new food! The purpose of His coming is to serve as nourishment to all mankind that all may have life, life in abundance. They were still thinking in terms of material benefits and failed to recognize the true identity and the purpose of His coming.

Our self-sufficiency, material comforts, over-dependency on the science and scientific advancement and the rat race for power, positions, and pleasure, blind us from recognizing the wonders which the Lord is doing in our daily life. We fail to recognize the need of God in our life. Jesus is calling us to look into our true nature. We are not just material beings, but above all, spiritual and transcendental being who cannot survive

#489 St. Paul the Apostle Pg 2

without spiritual nourishment which Jesus alone can give us. Through feeding of the bread which is temporal and perishable, Jesus indicates the heavenly bread that is Jesus Himself who came down from heaven. He reminds us today, "Man does not live on bread alone."

Fr. Tomichan
