Stewardship-

If you plan on being away during the summer, please be sure to continue to send in your weekly contributions. They may be mailed or you may utilize the ParishPay program. Please visit www.parishpay.com to enroll. Your support in this effort is greatly appreciated.

To whom Lord shall we go, you have the words of everlasting life. How often we have asked and answered that question? There are so many choices we are called upon to make - some easy, some very difficult. If it were not for the Grace of God we could find ourselves going astray - choosing to do or to be so unlike the faithful ones of the scriptures. It is all part of God's vision of who we are - free to choose and yet to be responsible for that choice. It is in this way that we partake in gaining salvation, by cooperating with the grace of God. His grace is primary, it initiates and emboldens our response, but respond we must. Even in ignoring His grace a response is given. As Isaiah says, His grace does not come back unanswered. It demands a choice.

For this reason we should be so careful of how we respond to God. We cannot trifle with our salvation nor should we take it for granted. What Jesus did for us was a supremely free act - not my will but thy will be done. And the only appropriate response is a likewise free acceptance of what Jesus merited for us. What is at stake is eternal salvation.

What is presumed is that we truly are followers of Christ. If we do not believe, what can be said...

Fr. James Healy
