Special thank you - We would like to extend a special thank you to Mr. Ernest Auer for replacing the carpet on the front steps of the Church.

Mass Intentions - There are still Masses available for 2015. The Mass Book for 2016 will be open starting September 1st. Please stop in or call the rectory to reserve your masses.

There is no better way of learning the will of God than turning to the Scriptures. They are God's special conversations with those who believe in Him, with those who get to know Him, and with those who do His will. Since God is a totality (one Being, without parts - simply one) His word is His substance, Wisdom Herself dispersed out of love for those to whom it is offered. The prologue of John's Gospel so beautifully portrays it, "the word of God is God," and that word has become flesh. To get to know Christ is to get to know God and to know God is to know Christ, sent to us out of love to deliver a message of forgiveness and eternal hope and love. But to receive this message it is necessary to believe, but to believe it is vital that we understand that God is speaking personally to each of us. We are being called by Him to trust in His divine word and to faithfully rely on His grace and power. To be our true selves before God we must drop the pretenses of this world and face God as a child would face his parent in innocence and love, simply as we are, but hoping to become more like Him. The message God gives us can only be given by Him for it is an eternal message far beyond what we ourselves can achieve. It is a message that God wants us to be with Him forever, if only we can become like Him. It is for this reason He sent His Son who empowers us and adopts us as a brother or sister and who has won for us the way to eternal life.

Fr. James Healy
