Thank you for your generosity!

Christmas Offering - Please be extra generous in your Christmas contribution to St. Paul the Apostle Church. We rely heavily on your special donation at this time of year. May God bless you for your generosity.

Our Prayer for Vocations to Religious Life as Sisters, Brothers, and Deacons:

Loving and Generous God, it is You who calls us by name and asks us to follow You. Help us to grow in the love and service of our Church as we experience it today.

Grant us faith-filled leaders who will embrace Christ's Mission of love and justice. Bless the Church by raising up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve your people as Sisters, Brothers, and Deacons.

Inspire us to know You better and open our hearts to hear Your call.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary the Mother of the Church and through the saving grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Matthew in his Gospel quite straightforwardly tells us that our lives are a preparation for the "one to come." His direct admonition to us all is simply to "prepare!" Of course, he is talking to our hearts - the deep seated, inner promptings of our lives wherein we will or will not find the fulfillment that we seek. As St. Augustine said, "our hearts are restless until they rest in thee" for it is God who can only fulfill our restless spirits and it is God's Son who is promised us as we prepare to receive Him during this advent season.

In reading the scriptures of mass we are graphically told of the yearning of our ancient Jewish forefathers. Isaiah, the prophet, recounts how the Jews returning from captivity in Babylon traced their way back home. As they traveled through present day Iraq and Syria and into Palestine, over mountains and through valleys, they trod expectantly to their beloved home - remembering all that they missed and anticipating all that was to come. So too for ourselves. For we too are enslaved in a new Babylon - captive to all that separates us from God. Sin, debauchery, idolatry, murder and mayhem are everywhere around us. Our society wishes to eradicate our belief in God going so far to obliterate the very reason for rejoicing with Happy Holidays/ Holiday trees instead of using the sacred name of Christ.

Such depth of denial have we come to that our souls cry out to God for forgiveness and redemption. We pray that God open our eyes and cleanse our ears to see what has taken place and to hear His call for us to return to Him. In this way only will we be prepared for His coming.

Fr. James Healy

Poinsettia Plants on the Christmas altar memorialize our loved ones. Please donate $20 for a memorial plant. Envelopes can be found in the back of the church.

This year Father Healy will be completing his first, six-year term as Pastor of St. Paul the Apostle. In keeping with Archdiocesan policy, an evaluation of the parish has begun. Parishioners and staff who wish to do so may write letters with their own comments about our parish and the pastoral leadership of the parish. Please address your letters to: Reverend Monsignor Edward Weber, The Office of Priest Personnel, Archdiocese of New York, 1011 First Avenue New York, New York 10022

Letters should be received no later than December 31, 2015. Any correspondence received after the deadline will NOT be included in the evaluation process.

St. Paul's Annual Caroling will be held on Friday, December 18th, outside the church, starting at 7pm. All are welcome to join.

Practice for St. Paul's Christmas Family Mass will be on Tuesday & Wednesday, Dec. 15th & 16th, from 6-8pm. Meet and dismiss from the cafeteria.
