Feeding Our Neighbors - An Archdiocesan-wide drive to replenish dwindling food pantries. Sun. Jan. 25th through Sun., Feb. 1st. Nearly 325,000 children have difficulty affording food, that's 22% of children in 10 counties in the Archdiocese. Do your part to make sure no hungry neighbor is turned away.

Our Journey in Faith

The readings this Sunday speak of prophets, a venerable term that has special meaning to people of faith. As we know prophets exercised an important role in the history of salvation. A segment of the Hebrew scriptures (the Tanak) was devoted to the work of the prophets, many of whom are referenced in our Sunday liturgy. The word prophet (in Hebrew: Nabi-singular/ nebi'im - plural) meant mouth-piece or oracle of God and their purpose was to remind the people of God's covenant with them: He was their God and they were His chosen people. No true prophet ever spoke in contradiction to what God revealed. Rather they reminded the people of what God promised and of what God had already done for them. They appealed to their faith and fidelity to God who was always at their side. The greatest of all the prophets was Jesus, Himself. He was, is, and ever shall be the Word of God, made flesh. All prophesy is fulfilled in, with, and through Him and His presence among us is forever.

Does Jesus still prophetically speak to us? Obviously, He does. He calls us to renew our commitment to him and to His teachings, to live authentically the message of His forgiveness and love, and to prepare for the final coming of His kingdom both here and in eternity.

Fr. James F. Healy
