Peter's Pence Collection - February 14-15th

Dear friends in the Lord:

Participation in the Peter's Pence collection affords each of us an opportunity to serve as witnesses of charity to our brothers and sisters around the world. Gifts to this annual collection assist our Holy Father in supporting the victims of war, natural disasters, and others most in need of assistance.

Please join Pope Francis in serving as a witness of charity throughout the world. You can do so through your donations, prayers, and outreach to spread the gospel message. As in the past, I ask that you be as generous as you can possibly be to this year's Peter Pence collection.

*Faithfully in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York*

Our Journey in Faith

With all that is happening in our world today there is one thing that seems to stand out - the crumbling economic basis of our everyday lives. Many are unemployed and many more face the prospect of cut backs in employment, salary, services, and assistance. To find yourself in middle-age without a job and no prospect in getting one is frightening especially if you have a family and are paying rent or a mortgage and without health insurance. Many in frustration give up looking for a position and drift into a world of self pity and despair. This often leads to depression and a whole cycle of self hatred and antisocial behavior.

In the scriptures we read of the decline of Job in his self image and his image of those around him. The bottom fell out of Job's world and his optimism, hope and joy seemed to evaporate. Moreover, years later, sickness was viewed as divine punishment and being sick was viewed as sufficient reason to separate a person from family, friends and the general public. You were on your own and there wasn't much hope for recovery. That is until Jesus came! He set out to lift up the spirit of people. Sick or possessed, the downtrodden flocked to His side to be cured. As in our gospel account of today, Peter's mother-in-law was told by Jesus "to get up", to join the family and friends for supper. No one should suffer isolation when things are going wrong. They are part of the human family and must be encouraged and helped by all. We are all our "brothers keeper" for this is exactly how Jesus would have us act.
