Lent - One of our Lenten customs is to pin our cross on the cross in the back of the Church. These crosses are presented to God in the Offertory of the Mass. Our Confirmation candidates and their families will present the gifts at each Mass during Lent. - The paper crosses, pens and pins are available near the cross.

Hang It On The Cross

*If you have a secret sorrow, a burden or a loss,
An aching need for healing...*

Hang It On The Cross

*If worry steals your sleep and makes you turn and toss,
If your heart is feeling heavy...*

Hang It On The Cross

*Every obstacle to faith or doubt you come across,
Every prayer unanswered...*

Hang It On The Cross

*For Christ has borne our brokenness and dearly paid
the cost to turn our trials to triumph...*

Hanging On The Cross

Our Journey in Faith

With Ash Wednesday we have officially entered the very holy season of Lent, a time in which, with God's help, we make all things anew. Yes, we prepare ourselves for the celebration of the great paschal mystery in which Jesus, our Savior, took upon Himself the suffering of crucifixion and death so that all this would be transformed by His resurrection. The path that He chose was such that in doing God's will He assumed the guilt of us all and in so doing He redeemed and saved, thus offering us not death but resurrection and eternal life. In calling us to follow Him, He opens for us the path to salvation.

From the very onset of His ministry, His forty days of fasting and prayer prepared Him to meet and conquer the darkest and most deadly enemy of humanity, the devil himself. Beset with temptation, Jesus overcame its cunning force with Godly power. In God's name He cast the devil aside, a reminder to us all that it is only by God's grace that we can overcome the temptations that attack us. Jesus' confrontation with evil is a stirring reminder of what we must do. Unless we admit our weakness and realize our need of divine help, we will forever be subject to the power of evil, for evil plays on our sense of pride and independence. Thinking that we can go it alone in this world is illusionary and is itself a cause of defeat in so many of our endeavors. Without God's help we can accomplish very little, if anything. Evil is very overpowering and attaches itself to our basest desires. That is why during this Lenten season we walk the road of Christ, taking His hand to show us the way to real freedom and joy, clinging to Him as a guide, knowing that He will not give up on us but that He will lead us to The Father.

Fr. James F. Healy

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will take place after the 12:15 mass on Sunday.

As stewards and Disciples of Christ, we recognize that all the goods and riches in our life are gifts from God. Strengthened by the Eucharist, we respond to God's generosity in our lives with gratitude by using and sharing our gifts in service to others. Please share your gifts and make a gift to the 2015 Cardinal's Appeal.
