Holy Father's Intentions for July

Universal Intention : Politics

That political responsibility may be lived at all levels as a high form of charity

Evangelization: The poor in Latin America

That, among social inequalities, Latin American Christians may bear witness to love for the poor and contribute to a more fraternal society

What does it mean to obey the will of God?

Is it something onerous or overbearing, a weight too heavy to carry? Or is it something that Jesus says: "My yoke is easy and my burden is light." What is it that God wants us to carry about. Quite simply it is Jesus himself. As St. Theresa of Avila states: "Christ has no (physical - worldly) body but ours, no hands, no feet on earth but ours. We are the eyes with which He looks compassionately at this world. Ours are the feet with which He walks to do good. Ours are the hands with which He blesses all the world." It is for this reason that St. Paul refers not to the good he was able to accomplish, but rather what Christ did through him. We are all called to be Christ bearers, so that through our good work all might praise God.

When you consider all the burdens, personal, economic, relational, that people carry around and compare them with the love, forgiveness, compassion and mercy of God in Christ, you can experience the relief and peace of our faith. We are truly free in Christ, for He has come not to condemn but to save. So be lighthearted and joyful and filled with praise. Christ is our Savior and He is always with us.

Fr. James F. Healy
