The Holy Father's Intentions for August:

Universal: Volunteers

That volunteers may give themselves generously to the service of the needy.

Evangelization: Outreach to the marginalized

That setting aside our very selves we may learn to be neighbors to those who find themselves on the margins of human life and society.

Visit of Pope Francis - As you may have heard, Pope Francis will be saying Mass at Madison Square Garden on September 25th. Each parish will be receiving a limited number of tickets; we will be advised in August as to how many tickets we will receive. If you are interested in attending, please fill out the postcard in the pew and drop it in the collection basket. There will be a lottery to determine who receives the tickets. Please call the rectory if you have any questions.

Christ taught us all to call God "Our Father". We are His children and like all children if we need anything we ask our father for it and it will be given to us, or so we hope. There are many times however when He chooses to have another plan for us to follow. What is definite is that God hears our prayers which is a way of saying that He is with us as He promised. What we are assured of is God's love and concern. Moreover, He gives us the grace to bear what has befallen us, the strength to keep going, and the refusal to surrender to hopelessness. Above all we must remind ourselves that we are of God, adopted as His children through the loving salvation of Christ. For us Christ suffered on the cross and gave His life so that we may live with God. Do not despair for beyond this life awaits eternity - life with God forever. So there is nothing to fear for the Lord is with us. So ask, and it will be given to you; search and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

It is this faith that we have and must share with our children for the world often presents a tragic picture. For a Christian, a follower of Jesus, life can unfold for us the bright promise of immortality and life with God forever.

Fr. James F. Healy
