Holy Father's Intentions for June

Universal - Immigrants & refugees

That immigrants and refugees may find welcome and respect in the countries to which they come.

Evangelization - Vocations

That the personal encounter with Jesus may arouse in many young people the desire to offer their own lives in priesthood or consecrated life.

Corpus Christi

God's wonderful works throughout history is the story of our salvation. From Creation through the death and resurrection of Christ and to our present time God's presence is made known to people of faith. Our Jewish brethren liturgically celebrated His presence in festal meals as well as through sacrificial worship. Our first reading from the Book of Exodus recalls a ritual sacrifice that links God and His people in a covenant of blood. The Passover meal celebrated every year since the exodus of the Jewish people from Egyptian slavery unites present day Jews with their ancestors of old so that they too may experience God's liberating power in their lives. Recalling the past to experience it in the present is essential to what we understand as liturgy.

As one famous theologian (Y. Congers) has written: "liturgy, as understood by Christians, is an anamnesis, an actualizing memory, an active representation of the acts by which God intervened to make a covenant with us and to save us. These acts keep their operative value for the believers of all ages who make them actual again in the Spirit when they celebrate these acts in faith and thanksgiving. The old is expressed anew; it comes alive, it keeps alive, it makes alive."

Such a liturgy is that of the Holy Eucharist, The Body and Blood of Christ. From the words of institution that Jesus uttered at the last supper through His passion, death and resurrection, the Eucharistic Christ is made really present to those who receive Him in faith. This is an eternal moment into which we are invited to enter with all our needs and wants. It is a greeting between Christ and us, an embrace meant to lift us up in anticipation of our final union with Christ.

Fr. James F. Healy

Father's Day Intentions - There are envelopes available in the pews and the back of the church for your Father's Day intentions.
