Holy Father's Intentions for March:

Universal Intention: Scientists

That those involved in scientific research may serve the well-being of the whole human person.

Evangelization: Contribution of Women

That the unique contribution of women to the life of the Church may be recognized always.

Our Journey in Faith

From the very beginning of our readings today, we are reminded of God's love for us and how He walks with us throughout our lives. In listening to God's word this Sunday weekend the story of the Transfiguration confirms God's journey with His people, both His chosen people and with His Son Jesus and His followers. By entering into human history, He guarded His people of old and in a spectacular way made Himself present in His Son, Jesus. God chose not to watch from afar, but instead to participate in human history, to interact with us every day in our human relations and yes, in our deepest and darkest moments. Having visualized Jesus' transfiguration, His disciples wanted to preserve this moment as we would want to focus fixedly on this unique manifestation of Godliness. But Jesus calls them back to the realities of human existence, for He had to suffer and die. So imbedded was Jesus that although He was God's Son, He none the less came to experience the cross which we too must bear. For there is nothing ever so terrible as suffering and death, that our God would not share with us. And why - because of His great love for us. What separates us from God - only sin and self centeredness. During this Lenten season cast these things off and let us open our hearts to the one who not only created us but shares with us the life He has given.

Fr. James F. Healy

Tax statements for your church contributions are available, at your request, at the rectory. Please call the rectory weekdays before noon or email your request to stpaulyonkers@gmail.com and a statement will be mailed to you.

Lent - One of our Lenten customs is to pin our cross on the cross in the back of the Church. These crosses are presented to God in the Offertory of the Mass. Our Confirmation candidates and their families will present the gifts at each Mass during Lent. - The paper crosses, pens and pins are available near the cross.
