Our Journey in Faith

A reason for reading the Scriptures is that it presents for us the word and heart of God revealed to us in its very pages. Confronted with God's word we are left with a choice to accept or not accept and a series of decisions as to how we might change our lives. In the Book of Chronicles we read where people were so wedded to doing whatever they pleased that they became so weak as to be overrun by their enemies; that they were held captive for many years in exile from their home and their faith. Not only were they physically enslaved but their hearts and minds were tortured by their sins. If it were not for God's intervention through the Persian, Cyrus, they would have lost everything - homeland, culture, faith.

We read the Scriptures as a backdrop to our own lives. They are instructive as to how we humans get in a bind and how only God can save us. This Sunday the words of John's Gospel stand before us with remarkable clarity: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life." There are many of us enslaved by sinful habits which have ensnared our hearts and souls. Only by the grace and unique gift of God's Son can we be released. In faith, we are shown the way. His divine forgiveness lifts the darkness that confines us and shows us the light of God's love that impels us to His mercy. Only by living with Him and in Him can there be true freedom.

Fr. James F. Healy

Tax statements for your church contributions are available, at your request, at the rectory. Please call the rectory weekdays before noon or email your request to stpaulyonkers@gmail.com and a statement will be mailed to you.

Lent - One of our Lenten customs is to pin our cross on the cross in the back of the Church. These crosses are presented to God in the Offertory of the Mass. Our Confirmation candidates and their families will present the gifts at each Mass during Lent. - The paper crosses, pens and pins are available near the cross.

Easter Flower Offering - Please consider memorializing a loved one during this Easter season by donating $20 for a pot of lilies.
