Our Journey in Faith

We extend to all our mothers a very happy and blessed mother's day. All their sacrifice and love are deeply appreciated and we want them to know this, that our prayers are with them today.

On Thursday, we celebrate the feast of The Ascension, a holy day of obligation. This feast recalls Jesus, the Christ, in His return to the Father from whence He was sent to us. Before Jesus suffered and died on the cross He prayed that The Holy Spirit be sent so that His teachings and grace-filled life would be adopted by us. Although Jesus is in Heaven, His life, message and Spirit are very much a part of our life. His words at the last supper, "Do this in memory of me", constitute a summons to which we must turn constantly, for we live in, through, and with Him.

We must always remember that the love that Jesus has for us perdures forever. He is our foremost intercessor before The Father and with the angels and saints they constitute a vast assembly asking for God's mercy upon us. Our liturgy of the mass anticipates the heavenly liturgy that forever is celebrated in heaven.

So there is not only a connection we have with Christ who suffered, died and rose for us, but a living link, a Spirit driven life that we must pursue daily, a life of prayer and good deeds, that reflects our love for God and neighbor, empowered by Jesus' gift of The Spirit and His heavenly intercession. We must never be separated from the love of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord.
