The Most Holy Trinity

Trinity Sunday

Today we celebrate the Feast of The Most Holy Trinity - The Mystery of God Himself. For most of us we have come to know God as children at our mothers/fathers feet. He was presented as one who created us, redeemed us, and sanctifies us - ever present day in and day out and one who waits for us at the end of our lives.

Our knowledge of God grew as we became acquainted with the Bible which we receive as God's Word. We believe that through the scriptures God reveals Himself to us and moreover His plan for our salvation. Little by little we have come to know of God's intervention in the history of mankind: how He chose a people as His own to communicate His will, to instruct us of His law, and to remind us of our commitments. Not always obeying God led to our need for even greater help. This came as an unmerited gift in the person of God's very Son, Jesus of Nazareth. God so loved us that the Word of God became flesh to dwell among us. He lived and taught by giving us an exemplary life to follow. Miraculously He cured the sick, exorcised demons, fed the hungry and preached the beatitudes. His legacy after suffering death by crucifixion was His promise that he would be always with us through the sacraments He instituted and the gift of the Holy Spirit that would dwell within His followers.

We as God's people hold sacred this triune God - one God, three persons - Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We confess that God is essentially a mystery - beyond our comprehension yet knowable, transcendent yet immanent, all powerful yet humble; whose mercy is loving and forgiving in an unconditional way yet just. One who not only saves us but waits for us to join Him for all eternity.

Fr. James F. Healy
