Businesses large and small take a great deal of time preparing end-of-year reports. These analyze where progress has been made in certain areas and where further growth is necessary. They also examine where certain practices are outmoded and others are counterproductive in achieving corporate and personal goals. As a faithful community and as individual believers we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ Our King which marks the final week of the liturgical year. It is appropriate, therefore, for us to take stock of our spiritual lives, especially in the context of the Year of Mercy. Using as the most important criteria the Holy Father's call for all of us to enter into and nourish an "intimate, personal, public, and communal relationship" with Christ we can begin our reflection with a question as to how many times do we turn to God in prayer. Do we begin and end our day in praise of the Presence of the Divine in our lives? Do we say the rosary often? Do we spend time in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament? Do we participate in Lectio Divina reading and meditating upon the Scripture? Is the Sacrifice of the Mass a priority every Lord's Day? Do we encourage our family and friends to join us in raising up our hearts and minds to God? The faith we love must reveal itself in acts which give flesh to our hopes and prayers. Do we leave our comfort zone and serve the Lord in practical ways? Do we welcome the opportunity to serve the unwed mother, the homebound senior, or the seriously ill? Of course, these sacramental events must be furthered by our participation in the sacramental life of the Church. As Cardinal Dolan shared in the Synod of Bishops and at a recent meeting of the American Bishops stated: "We kneel in the Sacrament of Penance because we are profoundly sorry for our faults and our sins, serious obstacles to the New Evangelization. But then we stand forgiven, resolute to return to the work entrusted to us - as evangelizers of the Gospel of Mercy." As

Advent nears, let us acknowledge that this is a great start to move away from our past weaknesses to a greater unity with God and man.

Fr. James Healy

This year Father Healy will be completing his first, six-year term as Pastor of St. Paul the Apostle. In keeping with Archdiocesan policy, an evaluation of the parish has begun. Parishioners and staff who wish to do so may write letters with their own comments about our parish and the pastoral leadership of the parish. Please address your letters to: Reverend Monsignor Edward Weber, The Office of Priest Personnel, Archdiocese of New York, 1011 First Avenue New York, New York 10022 Letters should be received no later than December 31, 2015. Any correspondence received after the deadline will NOT be included in the evaluation process.

The Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) provides funding for groups that make lasting change and uplift the poor in the United States. CCHD grants improve education, support economic development and help communities provide housing in low-income neighborhoods. Help us continue to defend human dignity and aid those living on the margins of society. Please give to the CCHD collection.

The Sts. Peter & Paul – St. Ursula Men's Club is sponsoring a winter coat drive from Nov. 16th to Dec. 21st, to benefit those in need in the local community. We are in need of new or gently used adult and children's coats. Coats can be brought to the Sts. Peter & Paul – St. Ursula Rectory or you can call 914-668-9815 to schedule a pick-up of your donation.
