World Mission Sunday - Message from Cardinal Dolan - Every year, World Mission Sunday recalls our baptismal promise to be missionaries for the Lord. We gather at Mass, as do Catholics throughout the World, in a spirit of love for evangelization so that, through our prayers and acts of solidarity, the gift of our faith may be shared with all. In his message for World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis writes, "Mission is part of the 'grammar' of faith, something essential for those who listen to the voice of the Spirit who whispers 'Come' and 'Go forth.' Those who follow Christ cannot fail to be missionaries..."

Your financial support on this World Mission Sunday, offered in the collection for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith, helps efforts in 1,150 young mission dioceses throughout the world, reaching the poorest of communities with a message of hope, healing, mercy, and peace. Please be as supportive of this collection as you can.

Our hearts are heavy this weekend as we think of the death of Michael Nolan. Why he should die is known only by God and we tremble to think of his passing. This tragedy like all others brings us to reflect on how truly tentative life is. In a single instant one can expire. How quickly life is over as we have experienced it and it forces us to seek what is beyond. Were it not for Jesus we would be dumbfounded to explain our passing. He comes to us in a simple story of Martha, Mary, and Lazarus. They were friends of Jesus, people with whom He could relax, enjoying their company. Lazarus took sick and died. His sisters were frantic and prayed that Jesus be with them. When He arrived, Martha told Him how upset they were and how their brother would not have died if He had been with them. Jesus reassured them that their brother would live in the resurrection from the dead, that He was Lord of the dead and the living. And to demonstrate that truth Jesus called Lazarus from the tomb.

In the face of human suffering Jesus does not abandon us. His Holy Spirit guides us to reach out to Him who is Lord of the dead and the living. It is our faith that if we die in the Lord, we shall rise with Him. We take comfort in His words: "I am the Resurrection and the Life. He who believes in me, even though He should die, shall have life everlasting." With that in our minds and hearts, we pray for Michael.

Fr. James Healy
