Mass Intentions - There are still Masses available for 2015. The Mass Book for 2016 is now open. Please stop in or call the rectory to reserve your masses.

Visit of Pope Francis

As you are aware, Pope Francis will be celebrating a Mass on Sept. 25th at Madison Square Garden. Our parish has received ten (10) tickets to this mass. Tickets were distributed to our parishioners by lottery and the winners have been notified.

There will be another opportunity to see the Holy Father as he travels through Central Park. The Archdiocese will be distributing a limited number of tickets. We will keep you notified as details become available to us.

We must all marvel when something great and glorious takes place from simple beginnings and humble surroundings. And yet this happens every school day when we see the brightness of our children's faces and the happy demeanor of their innocent lives. What a blessing it is to have a Catholic school and to have had one for these past 65 years. It shines brightly on Lee and Mclean Avenues through the dark and snowy days of winter and brightness of fall and spring. The life of nature coincides with that of our youth. Just as our clothes are accommodated to the seasons, so to the growth of our students as they progress from class to class, from year to year. How fleeting yet how stable St. Paul's is. Memory brings it all together - to have been, to be a friend of St. Paul's School.

I write to you so that you may awaken to the reality of our school and find a reason to support it. As the years pass so to the weight of finding the resources to maintain our school. Are the sacrifices we make for our school worth it? Having spent twenty-five years of my priesthood in schools, I say emphatically they are. The school brings our children closer to Christ, it gives an excellent education as can be seen in the high scores and great schools to which our students attend. It provides a loving atmosphere within which the children can mature and prosper. Will you help us with this important ministry of our parish?

Fr. James Healy

Religious Education Program - All families enrolled in our Religious Ed. Program are asked to re-register for the new school year.
