Visit of Pope Francis

As you are aware, Pope Francis will be celebrating a Mass on Sept. 25th at Madison Square Garden. Our parish has received ten (10) tickets to this mass. Tickets were distributed to our parishioners by lottery and the winners have been notified.

There will be another opportunity to see the Holy Father as he travels through Central Park. The Archdiocese will be distributing a limited number of tickets. Please contact the rectory, weekdays before 11am, if you are interested in these tickets.

Service is the Hallmark of true greatness. We all have the desire to become great by acquiring money, power, name and fame. But in today's Gospel Jesus tells us that our greatness consists in service rendered to others, especially the little ones or the less privileged ones. A child is helpless and totally depends on others. Hence, Jesus tells us that by welcoming children we welcome Christ and by welcoming Christ we welcome God Himself into our lives.

Jesus is our role model. He came not to be served but to serve. St. Paul states that Jesus empties Himself and took the form of a servant. Jesus lowered Himself and took on our lowly nature that He might raise us up and cloth us in His divine nature. Are we ready to humble ourselves and serve as Jesus did? Jesus also tells His disciples about how He is going to be betrayed and killed. The disciples respond with silence. At that moment Jesus definitely felt alone, since His own friends could not understand Him. However, He exhorts His disciples that in order to be first, one must be last and the servant to all. The point that Jesus makes is a person's greatness is determined by how well she/he gives her/his knowledge, ability, expertise, wealth, positions, etc... at the service of others, especially those most in need.

We always tend to remain in our comfort zones. At times we want to lead a better life at the cost of others. Remaining in the good books of those who are influential will help us to achieve our personal interest. By this attitude how can we be true servants as Christ envisioned?

Fr. Tomichan Moonnanappillil, MSFS
