Loving and Generous God, it is You who calls us by name and asks us to follow You. Help us to grow in the love and service of our Church as we experience it today.

Grant us faith-filled leaders who will embrace Christ's Mission of love and justice. Bless the Church by raising up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve your people as Sisters, Brothers, and Deacons.

Inspire us to know You better and open our hearts to hear Your call.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary the Mother of the Church and through the saving grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

PRAYERS FOR THE DECEASED

Please remember in prayer John McGurk, Catherine Longo, all those who died this week, and those who mourn them.

In surveying the history of St. Paul the Apostle Church, I noticed great fidelity to the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal and to the mission of the Archdiocese of New York. There is an understanding among you that God's work involves us all but that it needs to be administered and directed so as to protect the essentials of our faith and the needs of our people. This is the actualization of the great commandment of Jesus - love God with all your heart, soul and mind and one's neighbor as oneself. The work of the Archdiocese is precisely that - pastoral (worship, sacraments, priests), charitable and educational. From conception to the grave and beyond spans the interest and active concern of the Church of New York on behalf of her people.

Living as we do in a complex society the necessity of mutual assistance to accomplish our goal is obvious. The business of the Church is not a product but a service. Service is rendered through a variety of organizations connected with the Church. Buildings, offices, personnel, many of whom are highly professional and skilled, provide the services of the Archdiocese. As with everything today, costs are a necessary component. Capital and operating expenses are all a part of the picture. Buildings have to be maintained, insurance has to be paid, and personnel have to be compensated. For a diocese the size and scope of ours, the costs are astronomical. For the most part, the cost of all this depends on the good will and support of Church members and a very large dose of God's grace.

And so, the Archbishop once again turns to us for assistance. We know how hard he is working for us, how wonderfully he is serving the people of our Archdiocese. Now we must lend him a hand and support his Appeal.

Surely we can help with a generous gift and keep alive the long history of St. Paul the Apostles Church's service of God and neighbor and our loyalty as members of the Archdiocese.

Fr. James F. Healy

Attention Seniors - Would you enjoy spending a few hours playing Bingo and socializing over a cup of coffee? If you are 55 or older, St. Paul's Leisure Club meets every Tuesday at 1pm in the school cafeteria. Why not come as our guest one Tuesday?

Snow Closings - In case of snow or inclement weather, please tune into Channel 12 regarding school closings of our Religious Ed. Program.

As stewards and Disciples of Christ, we recognize that all the goods and riches in our life are gifts from God. Strengthened by the Eucharist, we respond to God's generosity in our lives with gratitude by using and sharing our gifts in service to others. Please share your gifts and make a gift to the 2016 Cardinal's Appeal. Our parish goal is $53,000. Please prayerfully consider your gift.

St. Paul the Apostle - Life in the Spirit Seminar - Tuesday nights during Lent, Feb. 16th - Mar. 29th, 7:45pm - 9:30pm. Come with Expectant Faith. Take steps which will allow Jesus Christ to establish, or restore, or deepen a relationship with you. For Catholics who have experienced the sacramental graces, Jesus will give you a new and fuller relationship with Himself. The gift of the Spirit fills our whole life and changes us so that we begin to know and experience God's love and the abundant life Jesus spoke of... "I came that they might have life and have it to the full." (John 10:10)

Stations of the Cross will be held every Friday during Lent at 7pm.
