Our Prayer for Vocations to Religious Life as Sisters, Brothers, and Deacons:

Loving and Generous God, it is You who calls us by name and asks us to follow You. Help us to grow in the love and service of our Church as we experience it today.

Grant us faith-filled leaders who will embrace Christ's Mission of love and justice. Bless the Church by raising up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve your people as Sisters, Brothers, and Deacons.

Inspire us to know You better and open our hearts to hear Your call.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary the Mother of the Church and through the saving grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

An essential feature of the Christian community to which we belong is that of baptism, a sacramental bond that unites people together in a cleansing act of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The tridentine base of this sacrament roots us to God in Himself as revealed to us in the person of Jesus, our Savior. It is an eternal commitment that God makes to us through His Son and confirmed by the Holy Spirit, that we are His forever, that we belong to His family, such as a son or daughter to a parent, that we moreover are His heirs, inheriting a share in His eternal life and a protection and peace that He alone can give.

This extraordinary bond that we have with God is lived out in our imitation of Christ - He is the Way, the Truth and the Life of God for us. Our action, values and spirit are thus touched by God Himself. Our response to this sacred bond we have with God needs to mature and ripen through the various stages and events of our life. The environment we create, the choices we make, the commitments to which we are tied, the association we have with each other, the goals toward which we strive - are or ought to be a reflection of our baptism. God is the alpha and omega, the beginning and the end of our lives. In our journey of faith we must evidence Him in all that we are and do!

Fr. James Healy
