Our Prayer for the Vocations of Single and Married Laypersons :

Almighty God, You have given me the gift of life and the gift of Your Holy Spirit.

For these incredible gifts, I thank you. Help me in my daily life to use them well. Deepen within me a desire to do your will each day, every day, for all with whom I interact.

Help me to hear and answer your call to serve you. Guide me in the vocation you have chosen for me, as a neighbor in my community, as a worker in my employment, as a lay minister in our church community, as a loving spouse and mother or father in my family, or as a single person living a life of generous service.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary the Mother of the Church and through the saving grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen

Since the Second Vatican Council a common understanding of Church is "people of God" united by one faith, one Baptism, one Lord. This oneness underlies all our differences and is the goal that we all share through our faith in Jesus, the Christ. Redeemed through His death and Resurrection we are to one another as brothers and sisters. Our common Father is God, our family is the Church. When Jesus was questioned as to who His family was he responded that the ones who did the will of His Father were brother, sister, mother to Him.

It is in this union with Christ in doing the will of God that we function as members of the Church. Our response to the situations and challenges of everyday life in a Christ-like manner makes real and actual our faith. From the very beginning Christians were distinguished by their love and compassion. The testimony of the Acts of the Apostles indicates the Christian's willingness to share whatever they have with each other, not only their faith but also their goods and belongings. And so too must we!

We need to cooperate and work with each other. The consequences of bickering and argument are division and separation. Where there is no transparency, there is suspicion and doubt. There can be no sense of community.

In the long history of the Church, even in the development of dogma, the role of the laity was pivotal. Two feasts, the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption, were proclaimed only after centuries of belief by God's people. Moreover, today, God's people are speaking and living Christ's message in many lay movements and have assumed more and more responsibility in health, peace, and ecumenical efforts throughout the world. Your active participation as God's people, cooperating with His grace, gives renewed life to our Church. If ever there has been a time for all of the People of God to assume their rightful place in our Church, it is now!

Fr. James Healy

We will visit two churches named after two saints who are examples of God's Mercy: Saints Peter and Paul. Plus we will visit two churches that have designated Holy Doors for this jubilee year: St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Shrine & St. Patrick's Cathedral. Sat., April 16th, 9am Opening Prayers. You must register in advance at www.pofnyc.org.

Released on June 18, Pope Francis's encyclical, Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home highlights several basic teachings. First, the destruction of God's creation, and specifically climate change is a moral issue. Second, there is an integral connection between our destruction of "Mother Earth" and suffering of the poor, especially those in developing countries. Finally, immediate actions are required, by individuals, who must change their lives, and by the community of nations. Fr. James Martin, S.J. explores these teachings in a four-minute video: www.youtube.com/watch?v=a\_lqFTYLc\_4
