PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

PRAYERS FOR THE DECEASED

Please remember in prayer Robert Schneider, Bridget Humphreys, Mary Lutz, Michael Bellew, all those who died this week, and those who mourn them.

Our Prayer for all Vocations:

O God, Father of all Mercies, send Your Spirit upon us. Open each of our hearts that we may discern Your Holy Will.

Inspire in us a love and desire to surrender ourselves to serving others in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ.

Teach us to follow our respective paths in life - priests, religious, married, or single - guided by Your Divine Word and Truth.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary the Mother of the Church and through the saving grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen

Fr. Jacques Hamel RIP

In imitation of Christ Fr. Jacques Hamel was martyred at his parish church this week in Normandy France by two Islamic ISIS thugs wielding knives. He gave his life because of their hatred of the Christ and His Church. May he rest in peace. He shed his blood and this is the highest imitation of the Lord. RIP

Fr. Leonard F. Villa

As we are ending July let us recall it is dedicated to the Precious Blood of the Lord.

Devotion to the Precious Blood

Fr. John A. Hardon, S.J.

St. Peter gives us the revealed foundation for our devotion to the Precious Blood. "You were redeemed," says the Apostle, "not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ as the Lamb without blemish or stain" (1 Peter 1:18-19).

The Meaning of the Precious Blood Given this foundation of faith, we ask ourselves what exactly do we mean when we say we were redeemed by the Blood of Christ? We mean that unless Christ had shed his blood for us, we would not be redeemed. In his infinite mercy, God chose to become man and die for our sins. But Christ, as the Incarnate Son of God, could not have died of any mortal sickness or disease. As the sinless Lamb of God, His death had to be inflicted outside of Himself. Moreover, having no sin on His soul which deserved bodily death, He had to want to be mortal. He therefore chose to bleed to death on the Cross.

Consequently the Blood of Christ is precious three times over. It is precious because it is literally the blood of the Son of God Who, out of love for us, assumed a human nature, with a human body that had human blood coursing through its veins. It is precious again literally, except this bloodshed on Calvary, the human race would not be redeemed.

Christ's Willing Sacrifice on the Cross It is precious because it was shed by Christ of His own free will. We speak of Christ sacrificing Himself on the Cross. So He did. But the heart of this sacrifice was His willingness to die by allowing His Body to be drained of its life-sustaining blood.

Providentially, the Mother of Jesus was standing under the Cross on Calvary as her Son was bleeding to death for the redemption of a sinful world. The Fathers of the Church tell us that Mary was splattered with the Blood of Christ, the blood he had received from her during the nine months she carried Him in her womb. Devotion to the Blood of Christ goes back to the early Church.

#489 St. Paul the Apostle Pg 2

Understandably, it is at the center of Christianity. Unlike the bloody sacrifices of animals in the Old Testament, the New Testament is new because Christians believe God Himself became man to shed His blood on the Cross for our salvation.

Moreover, and most importantly, we believe that Christ continues to offer His blood for us in every Sacrifice of the Mass. As the glorified Redeemer, He can no longer shed His blood physically, as He did on Calvary. But in every Mass He sheds His blood mystically. That is why when He instituted the Eucharist, He separately consecrated first the bread, "This is my body," and then the wine, "This is my blood." Until the end of time, every Mass signifies the separation of Christ's body and blood, symbolizing His readiness to die every time Mass is offered.

On Calvary, Christ merited the graces of our salvation through the Mass. He now communicates the graces won for us by the shedding of His blood on the Cross. Certainly one of the least known litanies approved by the Church is the Litany of the Precious Blood. Implied in this litany is the fact that Christ's whole Passion, from Gethsemani to Calvary, was a shedding of His blood.

The Precious Blood as a Source of Grace But most satisfying is the realization of the efficacy of the Precious Blood. It gives us the graces we need as we struggle through life on our way to eternity. No wonder St. Thomas Aquinas could say in the hymn Adoro Te, "Lord Jesus, loving Pelican of Heaven, cleanse me a sinner with Your blood, for a single drop can save the whole world from all its sin."

The Apostolate of the Precious Blood

Our century is the most bloody century in human history. We are living in the Age of Martyrs. Christ in His Mystical Body is undergoing what may justly be called a cosmic Passion.

Devotion to the Precious Blood is a divine imperative in our day. As we join our trials with those of the bleeding People of God, we cooperate with the Savior in His redemption of the modern world.
