Easter Offering - Please when you prepare for Easter, remember your parish. We rely heavily on your special donation at this time of year to carry out our ministries. Thank you and may your Easter be filled with God's blessings on you and your loved ones.

St. Paul the Apostle - Life in the Spirit Seminar - Tuesday nights during Lent through Mar. 29th, 7:45pm - 9:30pm. Come with Expectant Faith. The gift of the Spirit fills our whole life and changes us so that we begin to know and experience God's love and the abundant life Jesus spoke of... "I came that they might have life and have it to the full." (John 10:10)

Our Prayer for Family Life as Parents and Children :

Heavenly Father, thank you for our families.

Help all parents to witness Your love by their patience, their wisdom, their support, and their care for their children.

Help all children to show Your love to their parents. Help them to be patient, kind, helpful, and loving to their parents.

Whatever vocation in life to which you are calling them - priests, religious, married, or single - help them to give their hearts joyfully to You.

Let our families be the wellspring of faith, hope, and love in the Church.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary the Mother of the Church and through the saving grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

As we celebrate this Palm Sunday, we begin a most solemn re-presentation of the final days of Jesus in his ministry. Jesus, who was born in a stable thirty-three years before, so directed His life that it would culminate in the completion of His work. Everything He said and did pointed to these final events. For He came to save us and just like the sacrifices of the Old Testament it would require a sacrifice of Himself.

However, to make sure we would never forget Him, He left us a sacramental real presence of Himself. Gathered around a table with His disciples, He took bread and wine and said, "This is my body and this is my blood. Take and eat; take and drink. For this is a new covenant... do this in memory of me." In that last supper Jesus anticipated the sacrifice of Himself on the cross. He empowered those who sat with Him to repeat His words and to make real to the end of time His presence among us.

In our celebration of Holy Thursday let us cherish this unique gift of Himself to us. Let us glorify and praise the blessed sacrament that spiritually nourishes us all the days of our life.

Let us not ever separate our union with the Lord, especially in the trying moments of life and its decline. Jesus on Good Friday hung on a cross to encourage us to carry the crosses we have and to point to the fact that with God all is possible. His agony and desolation only gives us strength and courage, especially knowing that He did this for us. Through His absolute giving of Himself, we learn to give and to sacrifice for others.

All these wonderful events of Jesus' final days among us direct our minds to ask why. As the ancients would say: "love has its reasons which reason doesn't know." We humbly believe that Jesus wants us with Him forever. His resurrection from the dead is ours. He lived, died, and rose for us. To be with Him forever is His gift!

Fr. James F. Healy

Easter Flower Offering - Please consider memorializing a loved one during this Easter season by donating $20 for a pot of lilies, envelopes are available in the rear of the church.

The Good Friday Pontifical Collection - Every year, each parish in the United States takes up a collection on Good Friday, as designated by the Holy Father. This collection helps support the work of the Franciscans in the Holy Land. The money is used to care for the people and places of the Holy Land. This collection keeps Christianity alive in this area made holy by the life, suffering, death, and resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. We thank you for your support in the past and ask that you support this important collection again.
