Heavenly Father in your plan of life in Jesus, our present year dedicated to Saint Paul gives us the opportunity to ponder his gift to us. Listening to Saint Paul, "we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus.

Christ, through whom we have now received our reconciliation"

(Rom. 5:11) As the truth of God's love awakens us to understand our need of His forgiveness and the strength offered through His Spirit we envision true freedom.

With the help of the blessed Mother, may Saint Paul's good news be realized in some small way that develops into a holy picture

VOCATIONS

The year of St. Paul June 2008 to June 29, 2009. When Paul was moved by faith in Jesus his understanding of that experience came in the realization of what God had done for Abraham. God called Abraham out of a polytheistic religious system. God in his communication had touched deeply into the mind and heart of that great patriarch.

In exchange God made a promise to Abraham that he would be the father of many nations. Try to imagine that situation. Abraham called and told to leave his own homeland and go when God would direct him. How did Abraham put together all that was involved in that promise. How did the promise unfold in time for Abraham. How did the family of Abraham accept the change that Abraham offered them. How could those family members leave the fertile crescent when they were enjoying obvious prosperity.

God made a covenant, a promise to be fulfilled and Abraham accepted the Covenant on faith. This meeting of God and Abraham, of One God, when many gods at that time were worshipped, probably happened along unfolding time for Abraham and his family to make the final decision to leave and begin anew. How obvious! Such an outlandish offer could be accepted only in faith.

Abraham had no heir. God promised an heir through Sarah, a barren wife. More faith! In Galatians Paul highlights that heir, not as the collective descendants of Israel but as the Christ, Jesus himself, the fulfillment of faith given to us the brothers and sisters of Jesus who are called to freedom.

THEN AND NOW

ST. MARIA GORETTI, PRAY FOR US

Happy for the gift - Catholic School week
Pondering what from God we seek.
St. Maria Goretti, her schooling cut short
Martyred, God's Love, all else nought.
Grateful we, at heaven to peek.

Monsignor John A. Gallagher
