Heavenly Father in your plan of life in Jesus, our present year dedicated to Saint Paul gives us the opportunity to ponder his gift to us. Listening to Saint Paul, "we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received our reconciliation" (Rom. 5:11).

As the truth of God's love awakens us to understand our need of His forgiveness and the strength offered through His Spirit we envision true freedom. With the help of the blessed Mother, may Saint Paul's good news be realized in some small way that develops into a holy picture.

VOCATIONS

The year of St. Paul June 2008 to June 29, 2009.

In a letter to the Corinthians Paul was probably reflecting upon the surging drive that daily was animating his tireless spirit. "The love of Christ impels us..." Impelled? Impelled, caught his eager hopeful mind and stirred deeply within his swirling thoughts identifying with awe what enormous love was manifested in the offering of Jesus. "The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died..., so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for Him who for their sake died and was raised." (2 Cor. 5:14-15.)

To think of Jesus in devoted obedience to the Father, Jesus the Son of God was truly God, and offered Himself in His human nature for us in a sacrificial mode. Paul's astonishment at Jesus, the Messiah, bowing down in death, made Paul dramatically aware of the significance of that gesture. Paul understood the appearance of crucifixion – the ignominy of one totally scorned and rejected – that awful appearance. In the God plan, however, behind the appearance was a heart that was infinite in love, a heart that dashed with infinite love into death. In that action the heart of Jesus became a saving heart, a healing heart, a new creation. The resurrection opened to every human being what God intended from the beginning – now a human capacity that surpassed what originally might have been.

"Impelled" – may we too be drawn to the conviction that overcame Paul, the depth and glory of Jesus, the Revelation of God's infinite love.
