Heavenly Father in your plan of life in Jesus, our present year dedicated to Saint Paul gives us the opportunity to ponder his gift to us. Listening to Saint Paul, "we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received our reconciliation" (Rom. 5:11).

As the truth of God's love awakens us to understand our need of His forgiveness and the strength offered through His Spirit we envision true freedom. With the help of the blessed Mother, may Saint Paul's good news be realized in some small way that develops into a holy picture.

VOCATIONS

The year of St. Paul June 2008 to June 29, 2009.

The final hours of St Paul's life are not recounted in the Scriptures. In a letter to Timothy, there is a shadowy reference to his death, "For I am already on the point of being sacrificed"; the time to set sail has come. (2. Timothy 4:6). Death and a painful death? In the year 95 AD the Bishop of Rome, Clement I, wrote to the church at Corinth and mentioned the martyrdom of Peter. Then he refers to St Paul, "Owing to envy Paul also obtained the reward of patient endurance, after being several times thrown into captivity, compelled to flee, and stoned. After preaching both in the east and west he gained the illustrious reputation due to his faith, having taught righteousness to the whole world, and come to the extreme limit of the west, and suffered martyrdom under the prefects. Thus was he removed from the world, and went into a holy place having proved himself a striking example of patience." (1 Clement 5:2)

In Clement's letter we read that Paul arrived at "the extreme limit of the west". Did Paul reach Spain? There is no certainty on it, but in Paul's letter to the Romans he mentions his intention to go to Spain. Paul certainly was aiming to cover the then known world that shared in the commerce of civilization.

The actual tombs of Paul and Peter are today near Rome at the Basilica of St Paul outside the walls on the Ostian Way.
